INMATE GRIEVANCE REONSE

To Inmate: Maurice Lynam #256271 Cell: B-303

Date of Grievance: February 20, 2014

Response:

After reviewing the reports written by Deputies in Receiving, three different video surveillance cameras were downloaded to watch the actions of the Deputies, as well as yours.

From the camera that watches the uncuff cell, it appears that you were the most talkative and animated person there. You showed no signs of difficulty walking or moving about, which you can be seen doing those things while talking with other inmates. It was evident that at one point someone from Booking said something to you and the other inmates, as several people including you, looked toward Booking.

Moments later, members of the Cell Extraction Team approached and began to escort you away from the cell. I could see that a Deputy attempted to reach for your food bag, and you could be seen pulling away from him. That is when the Deputies placed you into an escort position. I can see where one knee strike to your left leg was delivered, when you began to struggle against their control.

Further, I interviewed all Deputies present and three revealed that they heard you state that you had MS, but that you were advised several times not to struggle and that no injury would occur if you followed that request. There was very little force used to escort you to R-7. Only the escort position was used with your head held down and protected, and with your arms held against your back, and your wrists in wrist locks. Although, I could see one knee strike given, that Deputy stated that you planted your feet against the door jambs of R-7 and that they had to knee strike you to get you into the cell. I could not see your feet planted on the door frame, nor do I see the Deputies using knee strikes, or any other additional force to get you to comply, although they stated that they used knee strikes to a nerve center on the leg to get you to comply. Based on what can be viewed in the recordings, very little force was used, and what was used, was not excessive. When the one Deputy attempted to take the food bag from you, the manner in which you swung your arm away from him, the action was toward another Deputy. None of the Deputies stated that you attempted to strike them; therefore, whoever is telling you that is incorrect. Further, nothing substantiates a claim that you were assaulted, nor that you have been a victim of foul play.

I realize that you have asked to be reclassified, and it has been explained to you that the first review is in 7 days, followed by another in 30 days and every 30 days afterwards. The numerous charges of Felony Firearms to which you have been lodged, in the past, confirm an initial classification of Maximum. Any action in violation of Posted Rules, and the struggle against control, initiates an upgrade. It will take a greater period of time to obtain a reduction than 30 days. You will need to establish a pattern of cooperation for a greater time period to qualify for a reduction. Based on the recording, and the reports written by the Deputies, there is no evidence to substantiate your grievance.

Nature of Grievance:

For some odd reason I have been bumped up to super max security. It has just been brought to my attention that I allegedly took a swing at an officer. This is NOT true! I have MS (Multiple Sclerosis), was just released from hospital Jan. 31, 2014 because of a major relapse in my condition that I have yet stabilized from. Even came in with a walking stick assisted by 3 (or more) nurses of my doctor. I kept shouting I have MS repeatedly but they did not stop. I was then placed in R-7 for 4 days with no mattress or floor or shower. Now my medical records match my story, in an attempt to cover themselves they have twisted the story to make me seem like a threat when I can barely walk. They used force without having to and now I am the victim of foul play. I am here on a 90 day misdemeanor.

Inmate Effort to Resolve with Staff (Explain):

I wrote a letter to be re-classified. I've tried to talk staff, but everyone says there is paper in my file has constantly been ignored. And those with have dictated say they can't help me. Please will someone help me for my incarceration criminal history will clear me of these allegations. (Attach Additional Sheets if Necessary) Also will the video if you have any

Nature of Grievance:

I do not know what to say. I'm in supermax and I don't know why, somehow I went from blues to super. I have no ticket nor have no charge. No one can tell me why I'm here. I pride myself on being a good person to everyone and am a strong believer in giving the respect that I would like to receive. I promise I've done nothing to warrant the treatment I have to go to Court in stripes which is kind of a discreditation of my character. I like to be liked and hate to be hated. I promise you that if you interview me or at least look into this matter you might find it suspicious. I at least been little because a staff member has a bad day, changes me to picks or and now I'm stuck in supermax. I carry myself with class for a reason, not for this.

Inmate Effort to Resolve with Staff (Explain):

I've tried classification, spoken with depts., sergeants, supervisors etc.
